National Cargo Bureau launch remote container inspection service

National Cargo Bureau, the New York based container inspection company and Exis parent company have recently launched a remote container inspection service based on the Hazcheck Inspections web-based container inspections database and access portal developed with Exis.

NCB has recently carried out remote container inspections for three of the top ten container lines, Evergreen, Maersk and Hapag Lloyd.

The new service uses mobile devices to connect customers with NCB's experienced team of surveyors, so they can review and inspect container transport units remotely. The information and media files that the customer captures remotely via the device are automatically uploaded to the mobile platform.
