Exis CEO completes fundraising challenge for Blood Cancer UK

We are pleased to announce that James Douglas, Exis CEO and his son Cameron successfully completed their Dee Isolation Challenge and raised over GBP 10k for a charity close to James' heart, Blood Cancer UK. They started their journey from the Dee Estuary, UK to Carrickfergus in Northern Ireland on 13 May and sailed in their 18ft catamaran for 3 days over a distance of more than 268km.

James was reunited with his mother in Carrickfergus. Due to the pandemic and James' diagnosis and treatment for CLL (Chronic Lymphocytic Leukaemia) he has been shielding and they have been isolated from each other a great deal over the past two years.

The Dee Isolation Challenge GoFundMe fundraising page is still accepting donations, and any further contributions would be very welcome.
