IMO releases Corrigenda for IMDG Code Amendment 40-20

The International Maritime Organization has released a May 2022 Corrigenda for the IMDG Code Amendment 40-20.

A summary of the changes in the Corrigenda is available from our website with a link to the full Corrigenda on the IMO website.

Exis has incorporated the Corrigenda into Hazcheck Systems, including Hazcheck Online, an online web subscription for the shipment of dangerous goods by sea.

RPMASA celebrate their 21st Anniversary with a webinar

The Responsible Packing Management Association of South Africa held their annual seminar "2022 and Beyond" on 9 June 2022 as part of their 21st Anniversary celebrations. Exis sponsored the event with 2 x IMDG Code e-learning Refresher courses. James Douglas, CEO, also spoke at the event about Exis e-learning courses for IMDG Code, CTU and Tank Container training and Hazcheck Systems for Amendment 40-20 IMDG Code compliance.

RPMASA is a non profit organisation (NPO) and the leading Southern African Organisation, for Classification and Transport of Dangerous Goods and Hazardous Materials. RPMASA has been a regional representative for Exis in South Africa for a number of years.

Outstanding results for the Dee Isolation Challenge

James Douglas, CEO, is delighted to announce that the Dee Isolation Challenge, a fundraising sailing challenge for Blood Cancer UK, raised the outstanding sum of GBP 14,000!! The original target was GBP 10,000.

As part of the fundraising, Exis also made a donation of GBP 1,500 to the RNLI (Royal National Lifeboat Institution) charity to help with the invaluable work they do all year round saving lives at sea.

James would like to say a big thank you to everyone who donated and helped him with the challenge!
