Customer Success Manager joins the Exis team!

We are excited to announce the appointment of Andy Rutter in the newly created position of Customer Success Manager. The role will help with a new phase of growth involving the development and future deployment of new Hazcheck and e-learning products.

Andy will support the Customers Accounts Director to ensure successful management in the delivery of products and technologies to our global customer base.

We wish Andy success in his new role!

Exis Technologies shortlisted
Logistics UK Awards 2022
Technology Provider of the Year
Hazcheck Detect

We are delighted to announce that Exis has been shortlisted in the 'Logistics Technology Provider of the Year' category of the Logistics UK's Logistics Awards 2022, with Hazcheck Detect, the cargo screening solution.

To date, four shipping lines, Maersk, ONE, Hapag Lloyd and PIL have purchased Hazcheck Detect comprising approximately 30% of global shipping volumes. Hazcheck Detect now screens approximately 15 million requests monthly and 40-50 high risk containers per week are being prevented from being loaded.

Spotlight on Exis customer - Metro Shipping

Metro Shipping has been offering multimodal international forwarding services since 1981. Their solutions support every type of business and product including hazardous cargo and project shipments. Metro has long-established partnerships with leading global brands and manufacturers, managing their supply chains – inbound and/or outbound at global, regional, or local levels.

They have been purchasing the IMDG Code e-learning Consignor/Freight Forwarder course from Exis since 2015.

New digital IMO publications

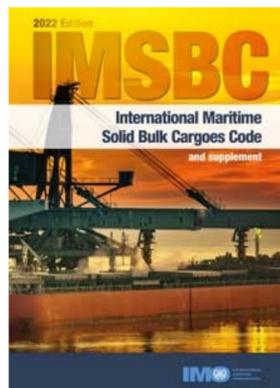

The International Maritime Organization has recently published MARPOL, Consolidated Edition 2022 (e-reader). E-reader files are accessed using the new IMO Bookshelf, a browser-based hybrid software, providing access to essential IMO publications.

The 2022 consolidated edition aims to provide an easy and comprehensive reference to the up-to-date provisions and Unified Interpretations of the Articles, Protocols and Annexes of the MARPOL Convention, including the incorporation of all the amendments that have been adopted by the Marine Environment Protection Committee (MEPC).

Further information, pricing and purchasing is available from our website. French and Spanish versions will be available later in the year.
